Day 2: Bangkok ~ City Tour

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at the hotel. At 8:30 am, embark on a sightseeing tour of Bangkok's most renowned temples. Your first stop will be the Royal Grand Palace and the Emerald Buddha, two of the city's most iconic attractions. Marvel at the intricate architecture and the stunning Emerald Buddha statue, a symbol of Thailand. Next, visit Wat Po, home to the largest Reclining Buddha in Thailand. This temple is also the birthplace of traditional Thai massage, and you might consider enjoying a relaxing massage here. After a leisurely lunch break, continue to Wat Arun, the Temple of Dawn, which offers breathtaking views of the Chao Phraya River. Take a stroll through the vibrant flower market, where you can see an array of colourful blooms and experience the local hustle and bustle. Conclude your tour with a visit to the Golden Mountain, where you can enjoy panoramic views of Bangkok. Return to your hotel in the late afternoon, and the evening is free for you to explore or relax.
