Day 2: Bangkok

Start your day with breakfast at your hotel before heading out to explore Bangkok's most iconic landmarks. Your first stop is Wat Pho, home to the famous 46-metre-long gold-leaf Reclining Buddha, one of the city's most remarkable sights. Continue to the magnificent Grand Palace, a stunning example of traditional Siamese architecture and a must-visit for any traveller. Within its grounds, discover the sacred Emerald Buddha and Wat Phra Kaew, Thailand's most revered temple. Afterwards, enjoy a scenic boat ride across the Chao Phraya River to visit Wat Arun. Known as the Temple of Dawn, its beautifully decorated spire rises high above the river and sparkles in the sunlight. Please note: A modest dress code applies when visiting temples. Shoulders and knees must be covered, footwear must be removed before entering temple buildings.
