Day 3: Tegalalang Rice Terrace, Tirta Empul, Besakih Temple and Tirta Gangga

This morning, you'll visit the beautiful Tegalalang Rice Terrace, one of Bali's most well-known rice terrace landscapes. After taking in the scenery, continue to Tirta Empul, also known as Tampak Siring. This sacred temple is especially known for its holy spring water, which locals believe has cleansing and healing properties.

From here, continue to Besakih Temple, Bali's largest and holiest temple. Set on the slopes of Mount Agung, this important temple is one of the island's most significant cultural and spiritual sites. Afterwards, visit Tirta Gangga, the peaceful former royal bathing pools, before returning to your hotel.
